

Voices for Sudan

VOICES FOR SUDAN GATHERING:
A BENEFIT TO SUPPORT THE VOICES OF US SUDANESE IN SEEKING PEACE AND JUSTICE FOR THEIR SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

WHERE: St Paul's Episcopal Church, 228 S. Pitt Street, Alexandria, Virginia

WHEN: March 17th, 2012 AT 6:30 -9 pm

Be a part of an evening of good food, live entertainment and comments and observations from Sudanese officials and experts on the unfolding developments in the new nation as well as the warfare that rages in marginalized areas of Sudan.

Our special guest speaker, Andrew Natsios, who served as U.S. Special Envoy to Sudan during the Bush Administration, will be speaking about his new book "Sudan, South Sudan and Darfur: What Everyone Needs to Know" which is now in print.

We have come a long way in our advocacy efforts and have the opportunity to continue the journey towards a brighter future for all oppressed in Sudan.

Come and enjoy our Silent Auction!

A donation of $25 to support the work of VOICES for SUDAN would be appreciated.

VOICES for SUDAN needs your support and looks forward to having you as a guest at this first-time event for our emerging organization!

VOICES for SUDAN (VFS) is a national organization consisting of a cross section of all Sudanese groups residing in the United States. VFS closely follows developments in both South Sudan and Sudan, advocates for stability, peace and development in the new South Sudan, and seeks to bring an end to the genocidal violence that rages in various regions of Sudan.

Voices for Sudan
1413 K Street N.W. #1000 Washington, DC 20005
202-440-5392, info@voicesforsudan.org